一、完整原文（证据句红色加粗 + Q 号标注 + 段后翻译 + 出题人底层逻辑）

READING PASSAGE 1

You should spend about 20 minutes on Questions 1–13, which are based on Reading Passage 1 below.

Dolls through the ages

What is today a simple children's toy has a surprisingly rich history. Dolls have been a part of humankind for thousands of years. Often depicting religious figures, or used as playthings, early dolls were probably made from primitive materials such as clay, fur, or wood.

段后翻译：如今作为简单儿童玩具的物品，却有着令人惊讶的丰富历史。玩偶已伴随人类数千年。早期玩偶通常描绘宗教人物，或被用作玩具，其制作材料可能是黏土（clay）、毛皮（fur）或木头（wood）等原始材料。

出题人底层逻辑：开篇总起，介绍玩偶的历史悠久性与早期核心特征（用途：宗教 / 玩具；材料：原始），为后文按时间线展开材料演变做铺垫，无直接出题点，但为后续细节题提供背景框架。

Dolls constructed of flat pieces of wood, painted with various designs, and with 'hair' made of clay, have often been found in Egyptian graves dating back to 2000 BC. (Q1) Egyptian tombs of wealthy families have included pottery dolls. Dolls being placed in these graves leads some to believe that they were cherished possessions.

段后翻译：在可追溯至公元前 2000 年的埃及墓穴（Egyptian graves）中，经常能发现由扁平木片制成、绘有各式图案且“头发”由黏土（clay）制成的玩偶。富裕家庭的埃及陵墓（Egyptian tombs）中也曾出土过陶制玩偶（pottery dolls）。将玩偶放入这些墓穴的行为，让一些人认为玩偶是珍贵财物（cherished possessions）。

出题人底层逻辑：聚焦“古埃及（公元前 2000 年）”时间节点，明确玩偶的材料细节（木头、黏土、陶器），直接针对“头发材料”设题（Q1），考查对具体信息的定位与提取能力。

Girls from ancient Greece and Rome offered their wooden dolls to goddesses after they were too ‘grown-up’ to play with dolls. (Q2) Most ancient dolls that were found in tombs were very simple creations, often made from such materials as clay, rags, wood, or bone. Some of the more unique dolls were made with ivory or wax. The main goal was to make the doll as lifelike as possible. That ideal led to the creation of dolls with movable limbs and removable garments, dating back to 600 BC. (Q3)

段后翻译：古希腊和古罗马的女孩长大后不再玩玩偶时，会将她们的木制玩偶（wooden dolls）献给女神（goddesses）。在墓穴中发现的大多数古代玩偶制作都十分简单，材料通常是黏土（clay）、破布（rags）、木头（wood）或骨头（bone）。部分更独特的玩偶则由象牙（ivory）或蜡（wax）制成。制作玩偶的主要目标是尽可能使其逼真（lifelike）。这一理念促成了可追溯至公元前 600 年的玩偶诞生——这类玩偶拥有可活动的肢体（limbs）和可脱卸的衣物（removable garments）。

出题人底层逻辑：推进时间线至“古希腊罗马”，从“用途（献给女神）”和“工艺（可活动肢体、可脱卸衣物）”两个维度设题（Q2 考查对象，Q3 考查身体部位），需注意“600 BC”的时间定位标志，避免与前文埃及时间混淆。

Following the era of the ancient dolls, Europe became a major hub for doll production. These dolls were primarily made of wood. Fewer than 30 examples of primitive wooden stump dolls from England survive today. The Grodnertal area of Germany produced many peg wooden dolls, a type of doll that has very simple peg joints and resembles a clothespin (a device for hanging washing on a clothesline). An alternative to wood was developed in the 1800s.

段后翻译：古代玩偶时代之后，欧洲成为玩偶生产的主要中心（hub）。这些玩偶主要由木头（wood）制成。如今，英格兰产的原始木制 stump 玩偶（primitive wooden stump dolls）仅存不到 30 个样本。德国的格罗德纳塔尔地区（Grodnertal area）生产了许多 peg 木制玩偶（peg wooden dolls），这类玩偶带有非常简单的 peg 关节（peg joints），外形类似晾衣夹（clothespin，一种用于将衣物挂在晾衣绳上的工具）。19 世纪时，人们研发出了木头的替代材料（alternative to wood）。

出题人底层逻辑：过渡段，将地理范围聚焦“欧洲”，时间线推进至“1800s”，核心作用是引出“木头替代材料”，为下一段“合成材料”的出题做铺垫，无直接考点，但需关注“1800s”这一关键时间标志。

Composition is a collective term for mixtures of pulped wood or paper that were used to make doll heads and bodies. (Q6) These mixtures were moulded under pressure, creating a durable doll that could be mass-produced. Manufacturers closely guarded the recipes for their mixtures, sometimes using strange ingredients like ash or eggshells. Papier-mâché, a type of composition, was one of the most popular mixtures.

段后翻译：合成材料（Composition）是木浆（pulped wood）或纸浆混合物的统称，这类混合物用于制作玩偶的头部和身体。这些混合物经加压塑形（moulded under pressure），制成耐用（durable）且可批量生产（mass-produced）的玩偶。制造商对其混合物的配方（recipes）严格保

密，有时会使用灰烬（ash）或蛋壳（eggshells）等特殊成分。纸浆（Papier-mâché）是合成材料的一种，也是最受欢迎的混合物之一。

出题人底层逻辑：针对“1800s 新材料”设题（Q6 考查材料名称），通过定义句“a collective term for...”明确“composition”的属性，考查对“术语解释”类信息的抓取能力，需注意术语首字母小写的答题要求（原文首字母大写为专有名词，题干要求“ONE WORD”，故小写）。

In addition to wooden dolls, wax dolls grew in popularity in the 17th and 18th centuries. (Q4) Munich in Germany was a major manufacturing centre for wax dolls. Wax dollmakers would model a doll's head in wax or clay, and then cover it with plaster to create a mould. (Q5) Then they would pour melted wax into the cast. The wax for the head would be very thin, no more than 3 mm. Some of the most distinctive wax dolls were created in England between 1850 and 1930. One of the first dolls that portrayed a baby was made in England from wax at the beginning of the 19th century.

段后翻译：除了木制玩偶，蜡制玩偶（wax dolls）在 17 至 18 世纪逐渐流行（grew in popularity）。德国慕尼黑（Munich）是蜡制玩偶的主要生产中心（major manufacturing centre）。蜡制玩偶工匠会先用蜡或黏土制作玩偶头部模型，然后用石膏（plaster）覆盖模型以制作模具（mould）。接着，他们会将熔化的蜡倒入铸模（cast）中。头部所用的蜡非常薄，厚度不超过 3 毫米。1850 年至 1930 年间，英格兰制作出了一些最具特色的（distinctive）蜡制玩偶。19 世纪初，英格兰还制作出了首批描绘婴儿形象的蜡制玩偶之一。

出题人底层逻辑：时间线回溯至“17-18 世纪”，补充该时期流行的“蜡制玩偶”，从“材料名称（Q4）”和“模具材料（Q5）”两个细节设题，需注意“17th and 18th centuries”与前文“1800s”的时间区分，避免混淆材料对应的时代。

Around the same time, porcelain became popular. It is made by firing special clays in a kiln at more than 2372 degrees Fahrenheit (1300°C), and only a few clays can withstand firing at such high temperatures. Porcelain is used generically to refer to both china and bisque dolls; china is glazed, whereas bisque is unglazed. Germany, France, and Denmark started creating china heads for dolls in the 1840s. These china heads were replaced in the 1860s by ones made of bisque. Bisque, which is porcelain fired twice with colour added to it after the first firing, looked more like skin than china did. (Q7)

段后翻译：大约在同一时期，瓷器（porcelain）开始流行。瓷器是将特殊黏土在窑（kiln）中以超过 2372 华氏度（1300 摄氏度）的高温烧制（firing）而成，且只有少数黏土能承受如此高的烧制温度。“瓷器（porcelain）”是一个通用术语，可指代上釉瓷玩偶（china dolls）和素烧瓷玩偶（bisque dolls）；上釉瓷（china）是带釉的（glazed），而素烧瓷（bisque）是无釉的（unglazed）。19 世纪 40 年代，德国、法国和丹麦开始制作瓷制玩偶头部。到了 19 世纪 60 年代，这些瓷制头部被素烧瓷制成的头部取代。素烧瓷是经过两次烧制的瓷器，第一次烧制后会添加颜色，其外观比上釉瓷更像皮肤（looked more like skin）。

出题人底层逻辑：围绕“瓷器玩偶”展开，核心考查“bisque 与 china 的对比”（Q7），通过“-whereas”“looked more like...than...”等逻辑词突出差异，需判断“逼真度”的比较关系，避免因颠倒比较对象而答错。

In France, the bébé was popular in the 1880s, and it has become a highly sought-after doll today. The bébé, first made in the 1850s, was different from its predecessors because it depicted a younger girl. Until then, most French dolls were representations of adults. Although the French dolls were unrivalled in their artistry, German bisque dolls became quite popular because they were not as expensive. (Q8) Kammer & Reinhardt introduced a bisque character doll in the 1900s, starting a trend of creating realistic dolls.

段后翻译：在法国，bébé 玩偶（bébé dolls）于 19 世纪 80 年代流行起来，如今已成为极受欢迎的（highly sought-after）玩偶。bébé 玩偶最早制作于 19 世纪 50 年代，与之前的玩偶（predecessors）不同，它描绘的是年幼女孩的形象。在此之前，大多数法国玩偶都以成人形象为原型（representations of adults）。尽管法国玩偶的工艺（artistry）无可匹敌（unrivalled），但德国素烧瓷玩偶却因其价格不那么高（not as expensive）而广受欢迎。19 世纪初，Kammer & Reinhardt 公司推出了一款素烧瓷角色玩偶（bisque character doll），开启了制作逼真玩偶（realistic dolls）的潮流。

出题人底层逻辑：聚焦“法德玩偶对比”，通过“although”引导的转折关系设题（Q8），考查“价格差异”的推断（德国不贵→法国更贵），需理解隐含的比较逻辑，而非直接找“cost more”的原词。

For many centuries, rag dolls were made by mothers for their children. (Q9) The term ‘rag doll’ refers generically to dolls made of any fabric. ‘Cloth doll’ refers to a subset of rag dolls made of linen or cotton. (Q10) Commercially produced rag dolls were first introduced in the 1850s by English and American manufacturers. (Q9) Although not as sophisticated as dolls made from other materials, rag dolls were well loved, often as a child’s first toy.

段后翻译：数百年来，布偶（rag dolls）一直由母亲们为孩子制作。“布偶（rag doll）”是一个通用术语，指由任何织物（fabric）制成的玩偶。“布制玩偶（cloth doll）”则指布偶的一个分支（subset），由亚麻布（linen）或棉布（cotton）制成。19 世纪 50 年代，英国和美国的制造商首次推出了商业化生产的（commercially produced）布偶。尽管布偶不如其他材料制成的玩偶精致（sophisticated），但它们深受喜爱，常被用作孩子的第一个玩具。

出题人底层逻辑：针对“布偶”设题，Q9 考查“起源时间”（区分“手工制作”与“商业化生产”的时间），Q10 考查“cloth doll 的定义”（明确材料范围），陷阱在于将“商业化生产时间”混淆为“布偶首次出现时间”，需关注“for many centuries”与“1850s”的时间差异。

Dollmaking did not become an industry in the United States until after the Civil War in the 1860s. Doll production was concentrated in the New England region of the United States, with dolls made from a variety of materials such as leather, rubber, papier-mâché, and cloth. Celluloid was developed in the state of New Jersey in the late 1860s and was used to manufacture dolls until the mid-1950s. German, French, American, and Japanese factories churned out cheaply produced celluloid dolls in mass quantities. However, celluloid fell out of favour because of its extreme flammability and propensity to fade in bright light. (Q11)

段后翻译：直到 19 世纪 60 年代美国内战后（after the Civil War），玩偶制作才成为美国的一个产业（industry）。美国的玩偶生产集中在新英格兰地区（New England region），所用材料多样，包括皮革（leather）、橡胶（rubber）、纸浆（papier-mâché）和布料（cloth）。19 世纪 60 年代末，赛璐璐（celluloid）在新泽西州被研发出来，并一直用于制作玩偶直至 20 世纪 50 年代中期。德国、法国、美国和日本的工厂大量生产（churned out in mass quantities）廉价的赛璐璐玩偶。然而，赛璐璐因其极高的易燃性（extreme flammability）和在强光下的褪色倾向（propensity to fade）而不再受欢迎（fell out of favour）。

出题人底层逻辑：聚焦“美国玩偶产业”与“赛璐璐材料”，通过“however”引出赛璐璐的缺点，直接针对“褪色”设题（Q11），考查“fade”与“lose their colour”的同义替换，需注意“-propensity to fade”即“tend to lose colour”的对应关系。

After World War I, dollmakers experimented with plastics. Hard plastic dolls were manufactured in the 1940s. They resembled composition dolls, but they were much more durable. (Q12) Other materials used in doll manufacturing included rubber, foam rubber, and vinyl in the 1950s and 1960s. Vinyl changed dollmaking, allowing dollmakers to root hair into the head, rather than using wigs or painting the hair. Although most dolls are now mass-manufactured using these modern materials, many modern dollmakers are still using the traditional materials of the past to make collectible dolls. (Q13)

段后翻译：第一次世界大战后，玩偶工匠开始尝试使用塑料（plastics）。20 世纪 40 年代，硬塑料玩偶（hard plastic dolls）被生产出来。它们外形类似合成材料玩偶（composition dolls），但耐用性要高得多（much more durable）。20 世纪 50 至 60 年代，玩偶制作中还使用了其他材料，包括橡胶（rubber）、泡沫橡胶（foam rubber）和乙烯基（vinyl）。乙烯基改变了玩偶制作工艺，使得工匠可以在玩偶头部植毛（root hair），而非使用假发（wigs）或绘制头发。尽管如今大多数玩偶都使用这些现代材料批量生产（mass-manufactured），但许多现代工匠仍在使用过去的传统材料制作收藏级玩偶（collectible dolls）。

出题人底层逻辑：时间线推进至“战后”，介绍“塑料、乙烯基”等现代材料，通过“but”引出“硬塑料与合成材料的耐用度对比”（Q12），需判断“更耐用”的对象；Q13 考查“收藏者偏好”，原文仅提及“用传统材料制作收藏玩偶”，未涉及“原装衣物”，故判断为 NOT GIVEN，考查对“信息缺失”的识别能力。
