Part 1

Part 1. You will hear a conversation about a job interview. First, you have some time to look at questions 1 to 7.

Now listen carefully and answer questions 1 to 7.

Interviewer: Good morning. Thanks for applying for the job. Let's start by confirming your details. Could I have your full name, please?

Sarah: Sure. My name is Sarah, Sarah Mervale.

Interviewer: Alright Sarah. I will ask you some questions about your current employment, then your qualifications and hobbies and so on. Let's talk about your experience. First up – I can see from your CV that your current job is at Office Solutions. What exactly does Office Solutions do?

Sarah: Oh, the company has the plan to sell tech equipment – printers, monitors, that sort of thing. But now they mainly sell office (1)furniture. Like office chairs, desks, even filing cabinets.

Interviewer: And your role there?

Sarah: Well, I'm a coordinator. There are delivery department for logistics and a customer service department, and the department I work in is (2)advertising. We handle campaigns, social media, all the flashy stuff!

Interviewer: Nice! That's a very important role, I would say. How long have you been in that position?

Sarah: Till now, almost a year and a half. I remember I started from (3)January last year.

Interviewer: Ok. A year and a half is not long, but don't worry, you are fine. We require candidates to have at least one-year experience in related field. Then, Let's talk about your education background. When did you graduate from college?

Sarah: Well, it's been almost five years since I graduated.

Interviewer: Your CV mentions a diploma – in what field?

Sarah: I studied (4)finance when I was a undergraduate. Got the diploma but realized spreadsheets weren't my passion!

Interviewer: So, you switch to marketing? That's a huge leap!

Sarah: Tell me about it!

Interviewer: Any recent courses or certifications?

Sarah: Yes. Actually, I have just finished a (5)tourism certificate online! Thought about travel blogging. And I'm thinking about getting a certificate in diving, I'm a good swimmer, so I guess that's not difficult for me.

Interviewer: Fun! I bet you can do it. Next, let's talk about languages. We work with some European clients. Linguistic skill could do no harm.

Sarah: I speak (6)Italian fluently – my mum is from Milan. Plus, when I was living in Asia, I tried to learn Korean and Japanese, but it didn't go well. So, I guess I'm still under the level of intermediate.

Interviewer: Ok. I will write that down. Now, outside work – any hobbies to share?

Sarah: Yeah! I used to like running; I even took part in Marathons. But my knees said no, so currently I don't run regularly. Instead, I go (7)dancing every Thursday!

Before you hear the rest of the conversation, you have some time to look at questions 8 to 10.

Now listen and answer questions 8 to 10.

Interviewer: So, Sarah, tell me why do you decide to apply to our agency specifically?

Sarah: Well, for one thing, I've studied markets for several years. So, I guess I have enough experience and knowledge about it. Plus, when I was young, I volunteered at the City (8)Museum. Their gift shop taught me sales psychology!

Interviewer: Oh! Good to know! How'd you hear about this role? Did you get it from our website or radio program?

Sarah: A (9)guest at a networking event mentioned the position to me.

Interviewer: Ok. Last thing. Our office is tucked behind a bakery. Follow the coffee smell! We'll email you a (10)map to help you find the right spot.

Sarah: Perfect! Thank you.

That is the end of Part1. You now have half a minute to check your answers.

Part 1

Part 1. You will hear a customer calling the festival booking office to inquire about details.

First, you have some time to look at questions 1 to 5.

Now listen carefully and answer questions 1 to 5.

Agent: Good morning, Dedlinbury Music Festival helpline. How can I help you?

Customer: Hi! I saw your advertisement online, and I'm planning to go there to enjoy the weekend with my family – could I check some details?

Agent: Of course! Go ahead!

Customer: OK! First, how long does the festival run this year? Still three days as previous years?

Agent: Well. Initially, the plan is from Wednesday to Friday, but many people will stay longer, till (1) Monday, for the local bands' encore performances.

Customer: Oh! That's longer than I expected!

Agent: Yes, the final day's highlight is the (2) Kilderstow Farm stage – K.I.L.D.E.R.S.T.O.W. that's where the festival's held.

Customer: Got it. I know that farm, not far away from where I live. And, about accommodation – can we camp onsite?

Agent: Certainly! You could take your own (3) tent with you and set up in the designated fields, which is free, and well-equipped with spacious showering space. Plus, we have pre-pitched one for hire, and that won't break the bank.

Customer: Great. Now, how much does the ticket cost?

Agent: The standard family pass is £175, but if you reserve the ticket today, the cheapest option is (4) £145. We also have single tickets, which start at £115.

Customer: Perfect! And I assume you have the shuttle buses?

Agent: Yes. Those are operating from 8am to 11pm, without extra charge.

Customer: Perfect. And how frequent are the shuttle buses?

Agent: Most of the time, they depart every (5) 20 minutes from the town centre to the farm. During peak hours, it's every 10 minutes, and the ride takes 15 minutes. So, please arrange your time in advance!

Customer: noted.

Before you hear the rest of the conversation, you have some time to look at questions 6 to 10.

Now listen and answer questions 6 to 10.

Customer: Could you tell me more about the events or activities during the festival?

Agent: Sure. About music, This year's music lineup is fantastic! The main genre is (6) jazz, with live bands playing every evening. You'll also hear pop and rock at the main stage. In the afternoon, there's folk music in the garden area. For dance lovers, we have electronic music at the club.

Customer: Sounds fun! What's the evening highlight?

Agent: Oh absolutely! On the Star Stage, we're taking it up a notch with a spectacular (7) firework display at 9 PM sharp, synchronized to a live orchestra playing world music classics. It's truly unmissable. And here's a pro tip: the best viewing spots are near the food stalls by the lake.

Customer: Wow, that sounds magical!

Agent: It gets better! All Moon Stage bookings include complimentary (8) chocolate, - we've partnered with local artisans to create special festival-themed truffles in flavors like matcha, salted caramel, and even chili! Each box comes with a QR code telling the story of our region's cocoa heritage.

Customer: Lovely! I bet my husband will be just as excited about that as the kids!

Agent: You're right! And speaking of kids, this year's (9) "World" theme means we've got incredible activities. Beyond the African drumming workshops, there's a Japanese taiko drum circle, Brazilian samba dancing, and even a didgeridoo demonstration! All designed specially for (10) children aged 5-12.

Customer: My kids would absolutely adore that! They've been practicing their drumming on pots and pans at home - this will be perfect!

Agent: Wonderful! Just remind them to wear comfortable clothes - those drumming sessions get energetic! Now, was there anything else I can help with today?

Customer: No, that's all - thank you so much for your help!

Agent: My pleasure! Don't forget to download our festival app for real-time schedule updates. Enjoy the fireworks!

Part1

Part 1, you will hear a conversation between a man and woman, the woman is enquiring about car maintenance course. First you have some time to look at questions 1 to 4.

Now listen carefully and answer questions 1 to 4.

Tom: Good afternoon, Community Skills Centre. Tom speaking.

Alice: Hi! I'm calling about the car maintenance course. I saw the poster at the city library the other day.

Tom: Ah yes, the "Basics of Car Care" workshop. How can I help today?

Alice: First off, where exactly is it held? The poster just said "central location"...

Tom: We use an old building on High Street, the one they renovated last year.

Alice: Oh, I guess I often passed by that building. Is that the garage near Riverside Park.

Tom: No, that garage is too small. All sessions for our participants will be held in the local (1)cinema, not far from the park.

Alice: Ok. Are the classes held on the second floor?

Tom: Yes. We are holding the classes in (2)Room 12. There's a lift if you need it – just past the snack machines.

Alice: Perfect. What about the time? I have to work during the day, do you have classes after 6 o'clock?

Tom: Absolutely. We offer sessions on (3)Tuesdays from 6:30 to 8:30pm. We are planning to get another one on Thursdays, but we are trying to find the right trainer for that session. Hope that will happen soon.

Alice: Sure! When does the class begin?

Tom: Let me check... We intended to start from the 22nd of (4)September, but we pushed it to the 29th.

Alice: Great! That works perfect for me!

Before you hear the rest of the talk, you have some time to look at questions 5 to 10.

Now listen and answer questions 5 to 10.

Alice: Now, I'm a total beginner. Last week I couldn't even open the bonnet.

Tom: No worries! On the first day, we will teach you how to check the car's (5)engine, like checking oil, coolant and so on.

Alice: Will we get to actual repairs? Like changing brakes?

Tom: That's in Level 2. Beginners focus on diagnostics during the first session of the course.

Alice: Makes sense! So, is there a café or restaurant that I can grab some food before class?

Tom: Yes. And we offer you mineral water without charge, but if you want some (6)coffee, you can buy it in the convenience shop on the first floor.

Alice: Good to know! And what should I bring for class?

Tom: All the (7)tools needed for the course are provided, without extra charge. And remember to bring your own gloves.

Alice: OK! And is there anything challenging to do, I mean, besides learning all those terms?

Tom: Sure! After learning basic knowledge, you will be working on real cars. We have several sponsors, most of them are vehicle manufacturers, some are major global corporations. Anyway, every one of you will try to change the (8)tires of cars. That's complicated, yet fun at the same time.

Alice: I bet I could learn a lot from it! So may I ask how much does the course cost? I checked your website, and it said 75 euros, is that right?

Tom: Well. That's the price for last year. We have to increase the price by 20 euros due to the rising cost, so it's (9)95 euros now in total.

Alice: Any discounts?

Tom: Only for group bookings. Let me check. More than 5 people can get a 10 percent discount. Solo learners pay full price, I'm afraid.

Alice: Hmm. Who's teaching?

Tom: John Ridley.

Alice: I'm sorry? Could you spell it for me?

Tom: Ridley. (10) R-I-D-L-E-Y. Best in the business! He trained Mercedes mechanics for 20 years. He's got this nickname, "The Car Whisperer". You'll love his oil change demo.

Alice: Good to know! How do I register?

Tom: Let me guide you...

That's the end of Part1. You now have half a minute to check your answers.
